A public hearing pursuant to Article 18-A of the New York General Municipal Law was held by the Steuben County Industrial Development Agency on Monday, June 7, 2021, at 5:00 p.m., local time, in connection with a proposed project in the Towns of Greenwood, West Union, Hartsville and Hornellsville, Steuben County, New York. The project includes the construction and equipping of an approximately 101.8MW wind generation facility consisting of approximately twenty-five (25) wind turbines, together with related substations, overhead and underground cabling and roadways for the production of wind-generated electricity and related improvements.

Given the ongoing COVID-19 public health crisis and related Executive Orders issued by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo, the Agency conducted the public hearing by zoom video conference.

Those in attendance were as follows:

IDA Representatives

James Johnson, Executive Director

Jill Staats, Deputy Director

Russ Gaenzle, Agency Counsel

Dean Strobel, Board Member

Company Representative

Kris Scornavacca, Project Director

James Johnson, opened the public hearing at 5 p.m. by reading the public hearing notice. There were no comments from those in attendance. The hearing remained open until 5:15 at which point the hearing was closed by Johnson.
